

Careers - MSc in International Finance & Accounting

The MSc prepares students for careers as auditors or financial controllers in financial institutions and non-financial companies, as well as for other roles in finance and in advisory services.

Graduates can work in transaction services, in particular for auditing firms and financial advisors; these careers involve evaluating or improving governance procedures and management control, due diligence, accounting and financial reporting, valuation and analysis of the tax implications of deals.

Placement report 2015

The Role of Financial Controller from an expert points of view:

- Video 1 Become a Financial Controller in a Multinational Company
- Video 2 Finance in a multinational company
- Video 3 Skill-set and mission in Finance
- Video 4 Challenges in Finance \(example in High Tech Industry\)
- Video 5 Career paths in Finance